INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCIAL STATEMENT

You should use this form if you will be requesting an I-20 form to obtain an F-1 student visa or a DS-2019 form for a J-1 visa. Certification of financial resources is required if you intend to apply for an F-1 or J-1 student visa. You must complete and return this form which must be accompanied by an original (not photocopied) bank statement or other financial certification, dated within nine months of the semester you intend to begin your study.

You must prove that you have the following:

Master of Information Technology (MIT) applicants:

1. Documented funds for a single student for first-year (Spring 2018 and Fall 2018) educational and living expenses totaling U.S. $62,000.

A Financial Statement received without adequate and satisfactory documented funds will delay your admission. Documentation of your financial resources should reach Rutgers four to six months before the semester for which you are applying. Please see the second page for important information about acceptable types of documentation.

Important information

1. You can email scanned copies of the original documents. FAXED records will not be accepted.
2. All financial statements of account must:
 - a) be in English or accompanied by a certified English translation;
 - b) report balances in U.S. dollars or, if in another currency, the exchange rate at the time of its issuance; and,
 - c) provided on official bank letterhead or business form and signed by the responsible financial officer.
3. All individuals named on financial statements of account must provide a separate, notarized, original Financial Statement. Omission of account holder identification, including family members, will delay admission.
4. Any sponsor in the United States on a temporary nonimmigrant visa must provide a copy of the passport I-94 form indicating visa type and current status. F and J visa holders may not financially sponsor a foreign student.
5. Certified financial support can include funds from several sources: personal, family, government, business, or a sponsoring agency. Each amount from each source must be documented separately. Note: Bank statements must be for a checking, savings, or time deposit account. Brokerage, stock or equities funds; real estate and/or any non-liquid assets may not be included.
6. Recipients of scholarships or other awards must provide an original (not photocopied) letter from the institution making the award, citing the applicant's name, the U.S. dollar amount awarded, duration, and terms of the award. The award letter must be in English or accompanied by a certified English translation.
7. Employer's support must be documented on business or bank letterhead, with the same information as for scholarships.
8. Financial documentation must be received in a satisfactory form reporting sufficient funds. Additional documentation may be required at the discretion of the Office of Admissions.
